

S 1 TERM 2 HOLIDAY WORK FOR GEOGRAPHY

TIME: 1:45 MINUTES.

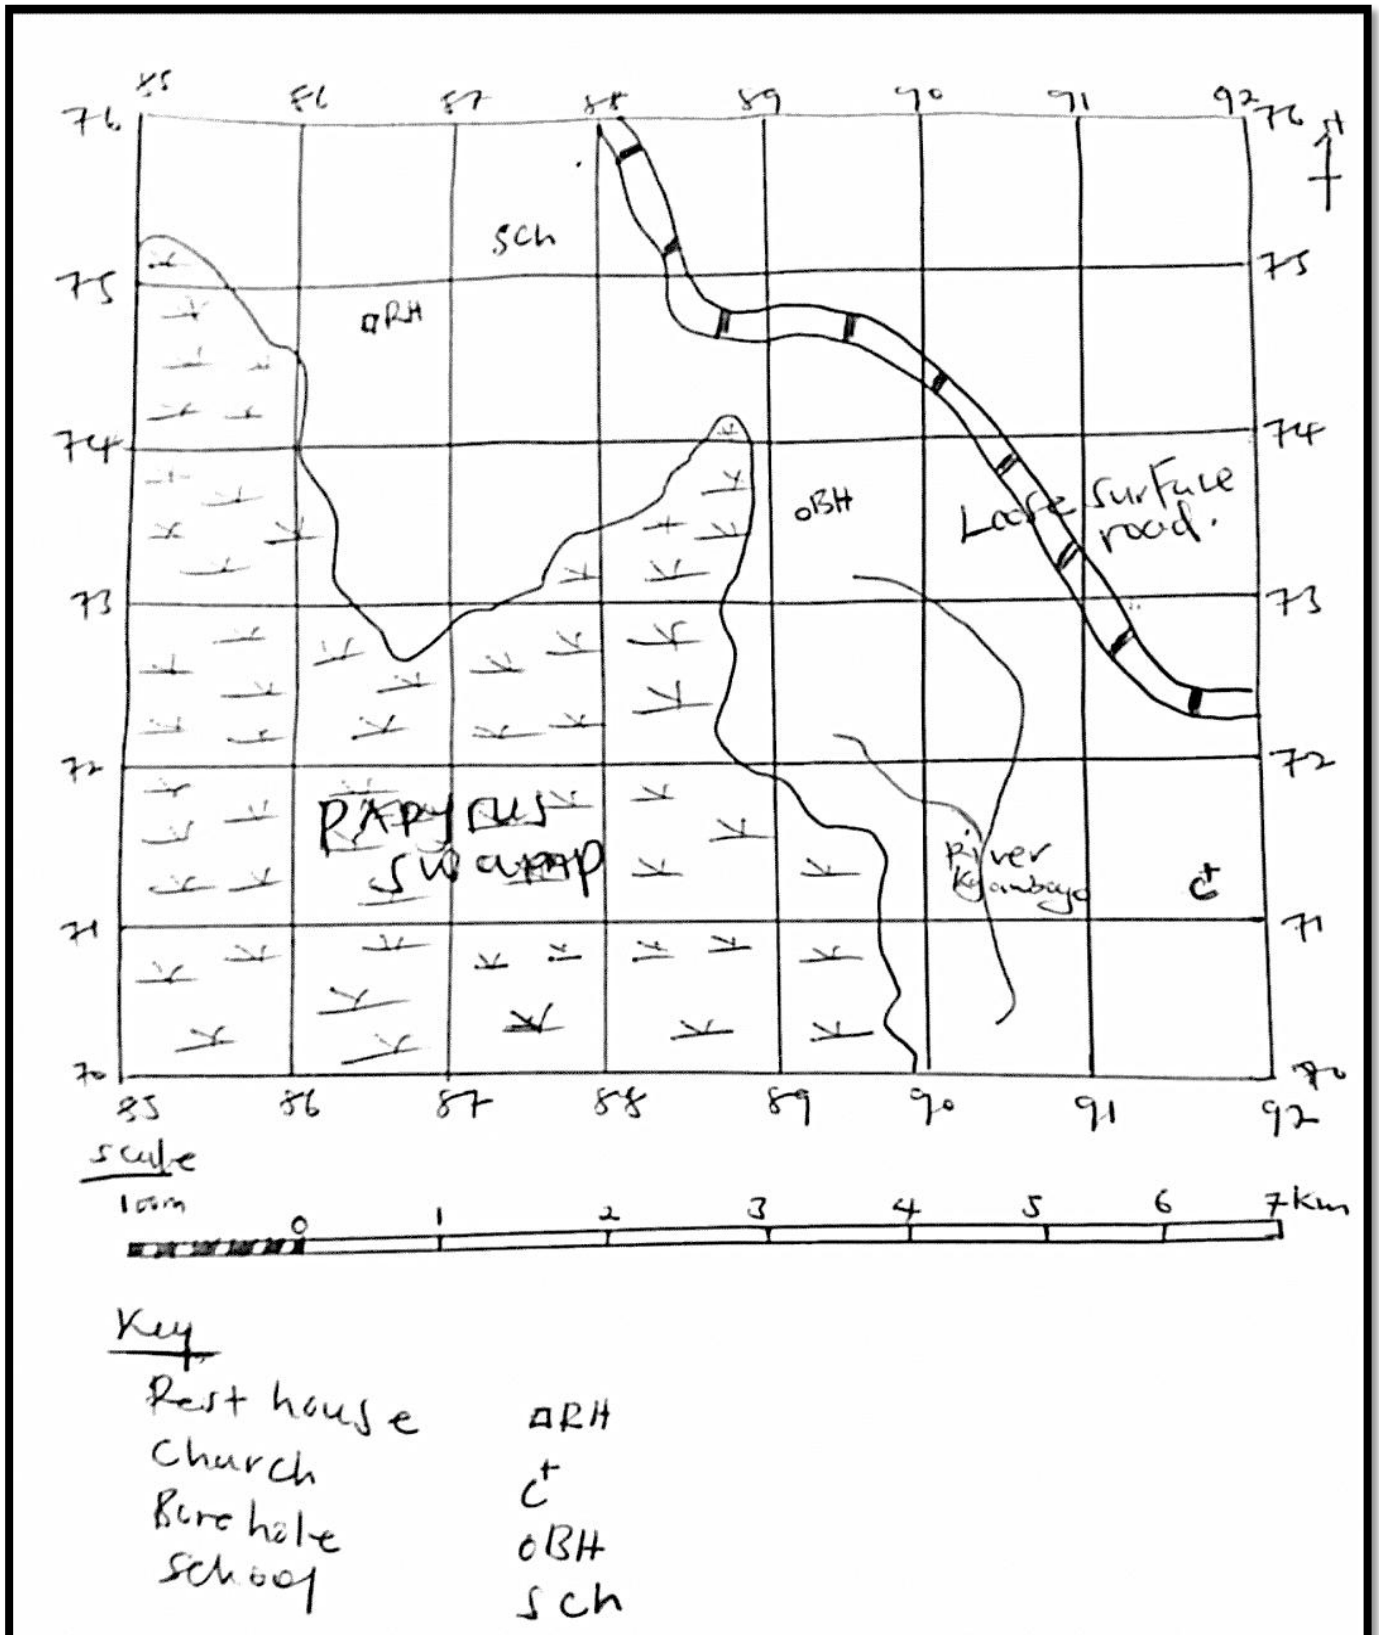

INSTRUCTIONS.

- Attempt all questions.

Item 1

A group of researchers is conducting a study on wetlands in Kampala to establish the possible land use activity they that can be set up. They have identified a papyrus swamp next to the loose surface road but they don't know the size of the swap and the distance covered by the loose surface road.

Support material (map extract of Kampala)

Task.

- a) You were identified as a resident of that area who is knowledgeable about the map of the area. Help the researchers to establish the area covered by the papyrus swamp in km. (3 scores)

b) Determine the distance covered by the loose surface road. (3scores)

c) What is the six-figure grid reference of the rest house. (2scores)

d) Establish the direction of the church from the bore hole using bearing (3scores)

Item 2

You are part of the team conducting afield work to investigate about the quality of the water from streams and rivers used by people in ascertain trading centre. Some of the stages to be followed is the preparation and the actual field work stage.

Support

material

TASK.

a) Using the knowledge you have acquired on field work, discuss at least any five ways you prepared for the field work before going the field. (5scores)

b) Identify any five methods used to collect information from the field. (5scores)

Item 3.

The local government of a small town surrounded by protected forest and highlands is facing pressure from the developers of the area who are cutting down the trees for construction purposes forests and highlands are a home of the endangered species animals and provides an important eco system including clean water and fresh air.

Support Material.

Task

a) As community member educate the developers of the area about the negative effects of their actions to the environment and suggest possible plans to conserve the environment.

(12 scores)

E N D